

The Alien with the Missing Tooth

Joe lived on the planet Zoop. He had two heads and three mouths. One day, Joe lost his tooth. It was his first tooth to go missing. He ran to his mom and told her the news. She looked very upset.

"We must find that missing tooth," she said.

Joe went to his dad and told him the news.

"We must find that missing tooth," he said.

Joe was very upset. He didn't want to lose any more teeth. He traveled all over space looking everywhere.

He didn't find it on the moon. He didn't find it in the stars.

"It must be on Earth," said Joe.

He got into his spaceship and flew to Earth. He looked under the ocean, and he looked on top of the mountains. He couldn't find it anywhere.

Joe was sad that his tooth was gone for good. He went home and told his mom and dad the news.

"I lost my tooth for good," he said.

When he went to brush his teeth that night, he saw something in the sink.

"My tooth it was here all along!"
